GTM Payroll Services Achieves Fourth Straight Year on INC 5000 List of Fastest Growing Private Companies Nationwide

AUGUST 24, 2010 – (Clifton Park, NY) – GTM Payroll Services Inc., a leader in the household employment and payroll tax services industry, is celebrating its fourth consecutive ranking on INC Magazine's recently released annual INC. 5000 List – an honor roll of the 5000 fastest-growing, privately held companies in the U.S.

With this accomplishment, GTM once again joins the rarified list of enterprises who have appeared on the list multiple times, many of which have grown to become national icons. GTM earned this year's honor with over 42% growth in revenue from 2006 to 2009, landing the company at the 3,725 spot. The INC. 5000 placement comes less than a month after The Capital Region Business Review named GTM among the Fastest Growing Companies in the Capital Region for the seventh consecutive year.

"Our team has continued to work hard and look for better ways to be innovative and responsive to our clients' changing needs. With that effort combined with on-going client referrals, we have continued to enjoy positive growth," said Guy Maddalone, GTM CEO.

With over 20 years of advocacy and service for the household employment industry, Guy Maddalone and GTM have been expertly guiding and educating thousands of clients throughout the U.S. with services for household employment such as "nanny tax", labor compliance, HR, and insurance needs. Maddalone leveraged the company's expertise in payroll and human resources expertise to expand services in 2002; competing with larger service providers to address the needs of the local business community. GTM Payroll Services collectively offers more than 250+ years of payroll industry experience - including professionals with CPP and FPC certifications backed by the company's SAS-70 Type II certification - to handle every employer's payroll, tax, human resources, and insurance needs.

"We are pleased to be recognized by INC for the 4th consecutive year and to be in the company of some of the elite businesses throughout the U.S.," noted Maddalone. "We look forward to continuing to achieve our growth goals by taking care of our clients' needs and by providing the best service at a better value."
